- RE: St v. John Rainey and Rose Gloria

John Rainey and Rose Gloria have each pled guilty to their criminal conduct involving the sexual assault of a sixteen year old girl in Boise last summer in June of 2007. Boise City Police initially responded to a 911 call to a residence in Boise after Rose Gloria reported that a household member had been raped by a stranger while she slept in her bed at home.

BCPD investigated the case which received heightened media attention based on the reported facts at the time that it involved a stranger/intruder attack in the home. The police initially arrested an individual and held him in the Ada County Jail on the charges for more than two weeks pending DNA analysis. That individual was eventually cleared but only after DNA analysis.

In March of 2008, John Rainey, Rose Gloria's live-in boyfriend, was arrested for the rape. His DNA had been collected with many other possible suspects during the on-going investigation. Police learned that Rainey had been living with Rose Gloria at the time of the sexual assault. However, Gloria had falsely informed police that Rainey was not in the home at the time of the assault.

Gloria additionally instructed the victim to also state that Rainey was not in the home at the time of assault. Gloria continued to deceive the police in this investigation until DNA clearly identified Rainey as the offender.

Rainey has now pled guilty to one count of Sexual Battery of a Sixteen year old child. Rainey's bond was revoked after his plea of guilty and sentencing is scheduled before Judge Cheri Copsey on September 24, 2008 at 11:00 a.m. Rainey faces life in prison without the possibility of parole and must register as a sex offender for life. Gloria pled guilty to Accessory to Rape. The maximum sentence she could receive is up to five years in prison. Her sentencing is also scheduled for September 24, 2008 at 11:00 a.m.
